FWD Payor Lite Rider

It's good to protect your loved ones, but it's even better to protect your promise of protection.

If you are thinking about a Takaful plan, you already know that protecting your loved ones and saving for their future is a top priority. A Takaful coverage provides a financial safety net if anything happens to your loved ones.

Whereas if something happens to you as the payor then it will shatter the promises of protection and savings you had made and planned for. Which makes securing the right coverage for you a critical step when you are planning to cover your spouse or kids who rely on your income.

We know that you would like to feel confident that your dependents won't lose their protection or their savings plans won't be derailed if unthinkable happens to you.

FWD Payor Lite Rider offers an economical, yet smart way to cover yourself. Such that when you take up a Takaful plan from FWD to cover your loved ones you can also take up this rider to cover you.

Important stuff you should know

When we won't pay any benefits

At FWD, we do not believe in setting a long list of hidden clauses that prevent us from giving you what is due. So we've simplified our exclusion list to just 3 criteria:

Suicide or self-inflicted act

We will not pay any benefit under this rider if the claim arises:
— from your suicide, attempted suicide or a self-inflicted; and
— within one year of the start of your rider, or the date we last reinstated your rider.
This applies regardless of the mental state of the person covered. If this happens, the rider will be cancelled.

Unlawful acts

We will not pay any benefit under this rider if the claim arises because you or a person covered wilfully participated in an unlawful act, or unlawful failure to act.

War

We will not pay any benefit under this rider if the claim is a result of an act of war (whether declared or not), coup, revolution, riot, or any similar event.

How we ensure it is Shariah compliant

1. We manage your contribution and our takaful operations based on the Shariah contract of wakalah, and guided by our Shariah committee.

Takaful is a mutual assistance scheme based on the spirit of brotherhood and solidarity where you and others agree to assist each other financially if any one of you suffers a specific loss.

2. The contributions you pay for cover under your certificate is subject to a wakalah fee.

Wakalah is the appointment by one party of another to act on his/her behalf.

3. We pay your contributions, less the wakalah fee, into our Participants' Risk Fund (PRF) as tabarru'. Funds in PRF are used to pay the benefits to claimants who are entitled to it based on:

- the solidarity of brotherhood and cooperation among the participants; and
- subject to the terms & conditions within this rider.

Tabarru' is a donation for the purpose of takaful.

4. In case of the good performance of the PRF, we will be compensated 50% of the surplus as Ju'alah and the remaining 50% will be distributed to participants.

If the value of PRF is insufficient to pay the claims, then we will pay Qard which is a benevolent profit-free loan to PRF.

Should you change your mind

If you aren't completely satisfied with your certificate, and you haven't made a claim under it, you have 15 days from the date you receive your certificate to cancel it and receive your contributions back, minus medical expenses (if any)

If you don't pay your contributions due

You need to pay your rider contributions along with your base plan contribution by the due date. We give you a 60- day grace period to pay.

- If your base plan does not have participants' savings account and if you have not paid the full contribution amounts due, both your base plan and rider will terminate after the grace period.
- If your base plan has participants' savings account then we will deduct the rider tabarru' amount due from it after the grace period.

If you do not have enough funds in your participants' savings account to pay for your rider and certificate tabarru', then both your base plan and your rider cover will end.
